Forecast for Monday 13 Nov 2023

Weather: Heavy rain at first, which will be accompanied by increasingly strong winds, which will reach gale force at time as it moves northeastwards through the day. Into the afternoon, very strong winds with storm force on higher slopes. Heavy rain will continue but with some drier interludes before clearing into the evening. Potential for a few outbreaks of mainly light rain through the evening but on the whole it will be drier with some clear spells and winds easing.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 600m: 30% improving to 60% during the evening.

Low Cloud and visibility: Scattered or broken cloud base 500-700m for much of the day, lifting and mostly clearing during the evening. Visibility moderate or poor in heavy rain, good outside of cloud in drier interludes.
